APPLICATION FOR TEMPORARY QUALIFYING BROKER LICENSE

A temporary qualifying broker can only be assigned within 30 days after the qualifying broker of a company has died or become disabled. The person designated as temporary qualifying broker shall either be a broker or have been a salesperson for at least one year prior to filing the application. If a temporary qualifying broker license is granted, a company can operate under the temporary qualifying broker for no more than 6 months after the death or disability of its former qualifying broker (Alabama Real Estate License Law Section 34-27-32(i)).

INSTRUCTIONS

- Complete this form online and print for submission or print a blank form and complete it in black or blue ink.
- The total fee is $175 ($150 for temporary qualifying broker license AND $25 for changing the company license to reflect new temporary qualifying broker). Make check payable to the Alabama Real Estate Commission and mail, with the form, to 1201 Carmichael Way, Montgomery, AL 36106. Complete applications are normally processed within 3 business days from the date received. Once processed, the license will be available for printing by the qualifying broker from the Commission's website, arec.alabama.gov, using the company login (the company license number and the qualifying broker's personal information).
